.New York .. Stock Market

PUBLIC DISPLAYS FAITH IN VALUES

For First Time in Months Brokers Get Liberal Sprinkling of Orders.

FURTHER ADVANCE EXPECTED

With Good Demand, Bond Dealings Exceed Previous Records for January.

BY BROADAN WALL. New York, January 15 .- Stocks were strong and active to-day. For the first time in months brokers received a lib-

strong and active to-day. For the first time in months brokers received a liberal sprinkling of orders from the public, which is beginning to display faith in values. This buying, coupled with short covering and active professional trading, gave a crispness to prices that was interesting, and is suggestive of a further advance.

London brokers have failed to sympathize with the strength here. They are worrying over labor troubles in South Africa, the Mexican situation and the argent demand from Paris for gold. Long before our market opened, New York traders were able to pick up blocks of Steel common. Union Pacific, Southern Pacific and Amalgamated in London. Arbitrage dealers bought the stocks back in the New York market at a loss. Trading for foreign account ran close to 25,000 shares, all on the buying side.

With the sharp advances there was considerable profit-taking by banking houses who were able to obtain profits of from 3 to 5 points on stocks they had purchased less than ten days ago. The market, however, absorbed these sales easily, and closed strongly.

Steel common was particularly active, advancing from 62 at the opening to 63 1-4. Reading, with a large turnover, closed practically unchanged. This stock continues to puzzle the room trader.

Manipulation Apparent.

over, closed practically unchanged. This stock continues to puzzle the room trader.

Manipulation Apparent.

Manipulation was apparent in a number of issues. It was freely predicted that Union Pacific would close about 159, and this promise was made good in the last few minutes. Can stocks were active, with substantial advances, and Erie rose steadily from 36 to 39 3-4. The preferred shares were strong, and the turnover in the bonds unusually heavy, at substantial advances.

Lehigh Valley gained nearly a point, and Baltimore and Onio rose to 92 3-4. There is little inducement to purchase this stock in view of the desire of Union Pacific directors to distribute a large portion of the issues to stockholers.

Express stocks were strong. United States Express sold at 62, on rumors that the company would enter into competition with Messrs. Cook in the tourist business. American Express gained eight points.

Short covering carried Canadian Pacific from 208 1-2 to 211, although it is generally conceded that Canada has not yet readjusted itself to the contraction in land values. Many sharp advances were scored in such issues as Harvester, Consolidated Gas, Delaware and Hudson and Northwestern. Other action are irregular; Mexican Petroleum firm; California Petroleum reactionary.

Rumely issues slumped on the United States.

roleum firm; California Petroleum, actionary.
Rumely issues slumped on the uncovering of stop loss orders. Bong dealings exceeded previous records for January, prices strong and the demangood. Wabash refunding 4s gained; point to 55 3-4. Attention has alread; been called to this issue in this column Rock Island collateral 4s were heavifulealt in at rising prices.

As an assurance of a broadening interest in stocks, the strength and activity of bonds is all that could be desired.

Oscar Barker, twenty years old, a popular young citizen of Matoaco, died at about 12 o'clock last night at his home in that village of injuries received in an accident. The young man was in the employment of Bernard Wells, a grocer of the village. On Tuesday while delivering some wood to a customer, throwing the pieces out from the rear of the wagon, the horse suddenly started off and he was thrown backward to the ground. He suffered a fracture at the base of the skull, which resulted fatally. The young man is survived by his father, Richard B. Barker, two sisters, Mrs. B. R. Lee and Miss, Edna C. Barker, all of Matoaca, and many friends.

Robert Williams, negro, was sent to the Hustings Court by the police justice this morning to answer the charge of grand larceny. He picked up a pocketbook in the store of C. S. Williamson, which contained $58.60, and which had been dropped by Thomas E. Stewart, a colored farmer. Instead of making inquiry as to the ownership of the pocketbook, Williams left to investigate its contents. He did not return, and when arrested, only $13 of the money was found on him.

He declared that he had given the balance, not knowing how much it was, to another ndgro, George Reeves. The latter has not been arrested.

The work will begin with services in caused by a defective fluo.

HOPES FOR SHORT SESSION

Regards as Fiction Reports of Trade War Against the United States.

Washington, January 15 .- President Wilson to-day outlined the status of number of the problems before him. He announced that he probably would utilize the full sixty-day period allotted by law before making final selections for the Federal Reserve Board, and would proceed slowly and carefully. He made it clear that he regards this task as of as much importance as constituting a whole Supreme Court of the United States. He intends to can-vass the field thoroughly, giving at-tention to geographical conditions, but not adhering to any hard and fast di-vision in this regard.

The President will not insist that antitrust legislation be given prece-dence in Congress over rural credits or vice versa, but is disposed to leave them to parliamentary procedure, hop-ing both will be accomplished at the

them to parliamentary procedure, hoping both will be accomplished at the present session. The President will not object to the primary idea, outlined in his annual message going over until the December session, believing bills should be drawn that are universally satisfactory.

Mr. Wilson would like to see Congress adjourned by June, with the trust question and rural credits disposed of, but is not sure that Congress can complete its work by then.

Address on Trust Question.

No time as yet has been set for the reading of the President's address on the trust question, but it is likely to be next Tuesday. The President will confer with leaders in trust reform before giving his message to the printer. He does not believe the trust question can be covered in a single bill, but expects at least two or three messages.

The President considers the Mexical conferciation of the president story.

the President considers the Mexican situation unchanged, and according to White House officials, has received no communications from foreign governments concerning Mexico's defalcation on the payment of interest on outstanding bonds.

Published reports of a trade war by Germany and Great Britain against the United States are regarded as fiction by the President, and he believes there is no foundation for the supposition that any agreement exists between Great Britain and Germany not to participate in the San Francisco Exposition.

President, G. C. Wright; vice-president,

Guy Webb, president of the Board feet deep with a bottom width of 125 feet along the entire Atlantic Coast, but accepted the correction of Representative Humphreys that he meant connecting links, of which there would be seven between Boston and Jacksonseven between Boston and Jackson-Pythian Banquet.

The annual banquet of Naomi Lodge, K. of P., was given last night in the A. P. Hill Camp Hall, and the occasion was in all respects a very enjoyable affair. Among the guests and speakers were Past Grand Chancellor B. A. Huffin, John W. Starke and others from Richmond. Speeches were also made by several local members of the order.

Governor Miller, of Delaware, said commerce would have immense ad-vantage through shortening of the disvantage through shortening of the dis-tance between Atlantic seaboard cities, and that the canal would be of ines-timable value in time of war. Governor Miller said that the sec-tions from New York Bay to Delaware tiver and thence Chesapeake Bay, the Chesapeake Bay, constituted the most vital part of the chain of canals for the Atlantic seaboard. He said the Delaware and Chesapeake Canal had the same relation to the seaboard that the Continental canals had to Europe.

Hustings Court Cases.

The January term of the Hustings Court convened this morning. Only one case on the Commonwealth's docket was tried, that of Richard Woodfin, indicted for horse stealing. He was convicted and sentenced to; the penitentiary for a term of three years. The case of W. M. Carter, colored, indicted for the murder of H. H. Cox, colored, was set for trial on February 29.

The case of Virgie Ford, colored, charged with the murder of William Wood, colored, did not go before the grand jury on account of the illness of a very material witness. It will come up at the next term. Two other cases were set for trial in February. The civil docket of the court will be called over on Saturday. General Felix Agnus, of Baltimore, told the committee that he had been assured that the initial purchase cost of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal would not exceed $2,500,000. He said that the British never would have in-vaded Washington if the canal had been built at that time.
